

Mint Hill Women's Club General Meeting

Monday, March 9, 2009

Kathy Cowles introduced Martha Bowman who explained the benefits of exercise with a Tai Chi demonstration.

Business meeting was called to order at 8:25 p.m.

President: Kathy Cowles

Kathy encouraged everyone to attend April's General Meeting which will be a planning session to determine how club monies will be distributed. New officers will also be selected. Members were asked to help recruit new volunteers to fill the Board for 2009-2010.

Kathy also asked what organizations we would like to receive our money.

Secretary: Bette Felsher

Minutes are posted on our website. There were no corrections to Feb. 9, 2009 minutes and they were accepted as written.

Treasurer: Dixie Helms

Dixie Helms was not present.

Please note: Dixie did give the Secretary a phone report on March 10, 2009
As of March 9, 2009 after all outstanding disbursements our
Checking account balance is $7,385.52

Spring Team:

Phyllis Griffin went over the activities planned and said to refer to the March newsletter for details. There were sign up sheets this evening for Johnson&Wales lunch/Federal Reserve, Lunch Bunch on March 20, Historical Luncheon on April 17 & Daniel Stowe on April 22. Phyllis will have volunteers making Easter baskets for home bound seniors on April 1.

Sharon Allen asked volunteers to bring snacks for Bingo night at Lawyers Glen on April 1. Sharon said Sue Black is planning on hosting a Garden Brunch on May 15.

General Discussion:

Thank you to winter team members for a great job.

Kathy reminded us to donate books to Friends of the Library sale by May 1, 2009

Barbara Banister suggested we bring can goods to each meeting to help Loaves & Fishes.

Kathy Cowles won the 50/50 drawing.

Meeting adjourned at 8:55 p.m
