

MINT HILL WOMEN'S CLUB GENERAL MEETING

Kathy Cowles, President, welcomed everyone to the meeting at 7:30 p.m.

Tina Ross introduced the speaker for the evening, Sharon Ashcroft, from the Presbyterian Hospital. She spoke on the subject of stroke awareness, which was very informative, and interesting.

Kathy called the business meeting to order at 8:40 p.m., after we had refreshments.

Pat Stanley reported that 170 people had signed up to participate in the Card Party at the Levine Center, February 11th. Volunteers are asked for clean-up duty. Kathy thanked Pat for her leadership and hard work in this endeavor.

Dixie Helms, Treasurer, reported our cash on hand $6,819.76, with 57 members.

Anna Mary Mosher handled the 50/50 raffle for the club meeting.

Barbara Banister sent cards to Sandy Renee, her mother died, and to Ginger Harris, her mother died.

Toni Rollins is taking reservations for the Lunch Bunch which will be at Jake's Good Eats located at 12721 Albemarle Road, on February 19.

Sharon Allen is asking for volunteers for Bingo at Lawyers Glen on Feb.25 at 7 p.m... Also, volunteers are needed to assemble Easter Baskets at her house on March 5, at 1: 00 p.m., for the needy.

Sharon is also heading up the committee for our participation in Discover Mint Hill which is April 17 from 9 until 3 at the Historical Site in Mint Hill. We will pass out juice boxes, water bottles, and information on our club. This even is sponsored by the Town of Mint Hill. They will have bus tours.

Tina Ross will have a speaker from Wild Birds Unlimited to speak on Blue Birds at our next general meeting on March 8.

"Friends of the Library" book sale is May 15.

April Bruner is chairman of the Spring Team.

---

Ann Latiker graciously volunteered to host the end of the year picnic at her home on May 10.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:05 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Anne Cloaninger, Secretary

