CLUB MEETING - SEPT. 8

A representative from Coldwater Creek from South Park Mall narrated our Fashion Show. Our five models were: MaryAnn Gatz, Terri Jeltrup, Esther Lapomarda, Maynell Outen, and Elaine Segarra. Each models 2 different outfits furnished by Coldwater Creek which offered a wide variety of casual and dressy outfits.

Members were asked to take advantage of store offering 25% off of everything in the store through Sept. 9. Catalogs were given to all attendees which included coupon of $25 off purchase of $100 or more – expires Sept. 15.

JoAnne Hornaday organized and recognized those that bought all the tasty refreshments (Ann Austin, Lois Carr, Margaret Almond, Sylvia Gil, Esther Lapomarda)

Four T-Shirts made by Lions Club were won by: Sarah Belk, Elaine Segarra, Florence (Ann Litaker's neighbor) and sorry I can't remember! Too many prizes to keep track of (giggle). A mum plant was won by Betty Ballard. The "50/50" money was won by Lois Carr

OCT. 13th CLUB MEETING

Becky Griffin from Mint Hill Historic Society will share historic perspective of early settlers and development of Mint Hill and vicinity. She is an excellent speaker with a wealth of knowledge and can answer questions, like « Who were these people? Where did they come from? What is the source of the names of our streets? Why was the Carl J. McEwen Historic Village created?»

LUNCH BUNCH – Friday, Oct. 17 - Noon

Waldhorn Restaurant is operated by a husband and wife team whom are both professionally trained chefs. Waldhorn serves hearty German fare in one of Charlotte's most unique dining environments. The huge, Swiss-style chalet that houses the restaurant is casual, friendly and brimming with old-world charm.

On weekends wandering accordion minstrels keep the scene lively. Diners settle in with a stein of beer and one of the house specialties, which include wiener schnitzel, bratwurst, and sauerbraten.
